HARVEY WATTERSON

Killed in New York--Lost Balance in Nineteenth Story Office.

Harvey Watterson, son of Henry Watterson, editor of the Courier-Journal, was instantly killed by a fall from a window of his office on the nineteenth floor of the Trust Company of America building in New York Wednesday afternoon. It was from one of the side windows overlooking the United States Trust Company building that he fell and he landed on the roof of that building nine stories below. Death must have been instantaneous. After a careful examination Dr. Leland pronounced the fatality a case of accidental death.

The theory is that Mr. Watterson's hands slipped as he was endeavoring to close a window in his private office and that he fell forward in a result with such force that he was unable to catch the sides of the windows or the sill.

The law firm occupied a suite of five rooms in the northeast corner of the building.

Mr. Watterson married Miss Alice Burrows, of New York, August 19, 1904, and she survives him.

"I have been somewhat costive, but Doan's Regulates gave just the results desired. They act mildly and regulate the bowels perfectly." --George B. Krause, 306 Walnut Ave., Altoona, Pa.

CIGAR FACTORIES CLOSE.

Local Option Victories in Ohio Held Responsible.

At Maysville, Ky., Nov. 9, the E. A. Robinson Cigar Company and George W. Childs, two of the largest manufacturers in the State, shut down.

They attribute their action to dull trade and late local option victories in Ohio, closing up 1,500 saloons, with which they did a thriving business.

These two employed 100 men, who will be compelled to go elsewhere to seek employment.

GRAND JURY

Of Fayette County Makes Report on W. E. Smith Case.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 6, 1903.
Editor Mt. Sterling Advocate, Mt. Sterling, Ky.:

Dear Sir:--Mine has been written and published to the disadvantage of the State University, on the disappearance of Mr. W. E. Smith some weeks ago. The Grand Jury of Fayette county has had the matter under investigation and upon adjournment made the enclosed report. Assuming that the newspapers of the Commonwealth are interested in knowing the truth, and that they will be glad to place the State University in a proper light before the community, I send you the report referred to, with the request that you give it equal publicity with the compromising rumors which have obtained currency.

Mr. Smith has not yet been discovered. The belief grows stronger daily that he went away voluntarily. Yours very truly,

JAMES K. PATTERSON,
President State University.

We, the Grand Jury of Fayette county, Ky., respectfully report to the court that so far as we could we have investigated those matters with reference to which we were charged, and have from time to time reported to this court indictments where the facts, in our opinion, justified it.

We have spent a great deal of time in the investigation of the disappearance of Willis E. Smith, a student of State University. In the course of our investigation we have also tried to run down all newspaper stories and rumors, but in no case have we found any testimony to substantiate such newspaper statements or reports.

In all cases we have traced such stories and reports back to some person who had merely expressed his opinion of the possible solution of the mystery.

We have been able to find no witness who ever saw Smith on the night of his disappearance, after he left his boarding house. We recommend that the investigation be continued by the detective force of the city and county, and the matter be again submitted to the Grand Jury.

Cured His Hogs.

J. A. Scott, Avon, Ky., says: "About Hog Cholera Remedy cured some hogs for me that I did not think could possibly be saved." Sold by W. S. Lloyd.

The American Tobacco Co.

The decision by a vote of four out of the Judges of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, sitting at New York, that the American Tobacco Company is a combination in restraint of trade, is the biggest thing yet accomplished by the Government in its fight on corporations that make a practice of violating the Sherman Act. The case is still to go to the Supreme Court, there to be decided on the law and the evidence.

The hope, however, that the Supreme Court will sustain the decision of the Circuit Court seems not unreasonable.

In no section of the country will the further progress of the case be watched with greater interest than in Kentucky, since with the Supreme Court rests the power to give the release from lawlessness that is no longer hoped for from the State. --Louisville Times.

DAY OF THANKS.

Governor Willson Names November 26th as the Day.

Gov. Willson has issued his Thanksgiving proclamation, fixing November 26 as a day for thanks throughout the Commonwealth. It is as follows:

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 10, Thanksgiving proclamation:

By the custom of our fathers and in accord with the Thanksgiving proclamation of the President of the United States of America, and in the name of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and all of its people, and for each and every soul in the Commonwealth, the Governor of Kentucky sets the day of prayer and thanksgiving to God on Thursday, November 26, 1903.

No one is so poor or wretched that he hath not something to thank God for, and no one is so blessed that he doth not need to bow in prayer, and our people in their homes should pray earnestly for relief from woes and wrongs, as they should return earnest thanks for the many blessings granted unto us by Providence.

As partners in the heritage power and hopes of our whole country, we have great blessings and honors to be thankful for, and those upon whom God hath bestowed great bounty of climate, soil, wealth beneath the ground, of noble deeds and great names, of great sacrifices and great gifts, we ought to return fervent thanks, and we ought to give covenant to the Lord to cherish and obey His laws and to keep with each other the covenants of our own laws and customs, to build up this Commonwealth and the business of all its people, to make every family in this Commonwealth rich in the spirit of the Old Kentucky Home, generous, free and amiable; to welcome its full workers to our State and to win and keep and hold the faithful love, confidence and service of all who are with us now.

Now, therefore, I, Augustus E. Willson, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, have set apart and do hereby fix Thursday the 26th day of this November, as a day of general thanksgiving and prayer, and ask that in so far as in us lies all shall cease from toil and business, and in our homes and places of worship truly thank God for our great blessings and pray His gracious providence and pledge to Him to keep our covenants with our God and each other, of faithful service, of human kindness, earnest work and patient endurance of the tasks of life, that we may deserve a continuation of blessings in the future.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Commonwealth of Kentucky to be affixed.

Done at Frankfort this 10th day of November, in the year of our Lord 1903 and in the 11th year of the reign of our Sovereign, King Edward VII.

AUGUSTUS E. WILLSON,
Governor of Kentucky,
BEN L. BRUNNER,
Secretary of State.

HAZELRIGG & SON

THIS IS SAID TO HELP MANY.

EIGHT DEAD AND FIFTEEN INJURED.

Druggists Here in Town Say They Can Supply the Ingredients or Make Up the Mixture.

Get from any druggist plain and follow up:

Fluid Extract Baldwins, one half ounce; Compound Kerosene, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Shake well and drink a glassful, a teaspoonful dose after each meal and at bedtimes.

The above is considered as the most certain prescription ever written to relieve Backache, Kidney Trouble, Weak Bladder and all forms of Urinary difficulties. This mixture acts promptly on the eliminative tissues of the kidneys, enabling them to filter and strain the ureic acid and other waste matter from the blood which causes Rheumatism.

Some persons who suffer with the affliction may not feel inclined to mix much confidence in this simple mixture, yet those who have tried it say the results are simply surprising, the relief being effected without the slightest injury to the stomach or other organs.

Mix one pint and give it a trial. It certainly comes highly recommended. It is the prescription of an eminent authority, whose entire reputation, it is said, was established by it.

A dentist here at home, when asked, stated that he could either supply the ingredients or mix the prescription for our readers, also recommends it as harmless.

Express Train Crashes into Rear of Local.

A Great Northern express train derailed into the rear of a No. 100 local and Northeastern local at 4:30 a.m. yesterday morning at Littleton, 12 miles west of Fisherville and hunting down back Pottersburg, twelve miles from New Orleans.

Eight dead and many more injured, some of them fatally, are the record of the wreck, which was attended by unusually gory scenes in the fog-bound swamps of the lake shore. To add to the horror of the situation the wreck caught fire and only the heroic work of the surviving passengers prevented the cremation of those pinned down in the debris.

Among those killed was C. B. Lowry, who, for many years, was one of the most prominent and popular citizens of Lexington.

Saved for $50,000.

Col. Milton Young, the well-known turfman, thoroughbred horse-breeder and commander of the State Racing Commission, of Fayette county, was made the defendant in a suit for $25,000 damages, filed by Charles E. Hughes, a member of the Lexington bar and associate of the James E. Hughes printing house of Lexington on the publication of law books an allegation that his standing and reputation have been injured in the sum sued for by envious remarks made concerning him by Col. Young at the public sale of the latter's lands.

Mrs. Malvina Farnall also wants $25,000 on same grounds as that of Attorney McDonald.

Social pleasures and business engagements should not come between the Democrats of Kentucky and their duty in selecting precinct committeemen on next Saturday at 2 o'clock, standard time.
Every man should be personally interested, and should be present, if he can conscientiously support either candidate. It sometimes happens that while a candidate is personally acceptable, yet his additional support of him is undesirable.
What does your preference of a candidate amount to if you are ABSENT when the count is made?
If you stay away, and the best man is turned down, have you any ground for complaint? Did you try for the best?

Fines in courts do not stone for

ARE WE GUILTY?

Enroute to Frenchburg Circuit Court last week the writer passed the Phelps home where a few months ago the tragedy occurred which resulted in the loss of two lives, when young Phelps after shooting his brother-in-law, Woodward, committed suicide even while his sister clung to him. A woman with the Woodward infant in her arms stood in the door as we passed. This recalled the tragedy which occurred on a Sunday afternoon, after the two men had come on Sunday morning to Jeffersonville, Montgomery county, and bought whiskey illegally sold The writer thought not only of the deep sorrow that had befallen those homes, but of the shame and reproach that comes to our own county for tolerating the continuation of that saloon and especially for the sale of whiskey on the Lord's day.

To what extent God will hold the officers and citizens of Montgomery (including Jeffersonville) responsible for the crime we can not tell. We deeply regret that the side and killing occurred. For years we have plead in private, pulpit and press with the people of Montgomery to walk in the way that the Christ has pointed out, and also to suppress the sale of in-toxicals, the instigator of crimes.

SELECTION OF COMMITTEE MEN.

On next Saturday at 2 o'clock in each precinct of the city and county there will be an election by the Democrats of a committee man from each precinct. The men thus elected will form the County Committee, which, for the next four years, will direct the affairs of the Democratic party. In politics & business, men should be fair to each other. We hope that the election will result in the selection of men who will satisfactorily anguishly conduct the business committed to them.

In reputation and character party cannot easily, if at all, rise above the reputation and character of the men who formulate its principles and execute its work. Considering what in the past has been mischievous and regretting that which has been suspicious in vices in our State, we trust the a quickened conscience and a high conception of civic righteousses will characterize the ruling bodies the powers that be.

Remember that on Saturday Democratic Precinct Committee men are to be elected. If these men are elected, honesty, fairness, justice will prevail. If COUNTER CITERS get in, there is no telling what all will happen. Frauds, graft, reprobate, defeat, will follow.

Abuse, verbal or by act, seldom converts a man. Let there be appeals to the better element of man's make up, if you want to change him. Publicity of facts—however unpleasant the duty and privilege is not to be construed as hostility or hatred.

The imposing of a fine for a lawless act, or the possession of a license, does not change the moral quality of the act or the business; nor does it give peace to the conscience of him who has done his neighbor wrong.

President-elect Taft will convene a special session of Congress soon after March 4.

GAMBLERS LECTURED.

Judge William McD. Shaw, Circuit Judge of Kenton county, i-determined that gambling must be stopped in the county, and makes the gamblers indicted by the grand jury promise to stop. These men had followed a custom that is not unusual of agreeing with the Commonwealth's Attorney that they would make a plea of guilty, receive the smallest fine possible and then continue in business until the time of the meeting of the next grand jury. When the cases were called the Judge demonstrated that he was not to be fooled with in his efforts to break up gambling in the county. Calling the men before him he thus addressed the n:

"Mr. Funk, Mr. Osterholt, Mr.
Kincaid and Mr. Shafer, you are indicted for permitting gambling on the premises in your occupation and under your control. As I understand it, the Commonwealth's Attorney has agreed with you, subject to the consent of the Court, that on your plea of guilty a fine of $250 shall be imposed. Ordinarily, wherever there is an agreement between the defendants and the attorney for the Commonwealth we let the guilty plea stand without any comment by the Court, but I feel that in these cases I want something else done. The object of the law is not only to punish a man for violating the law, but to prevent further violations of the law. These pleas of guilty and the imposition of fines will amount absolutely nothing if gambling is to be continued. It would only soften your quitting business and permitting some one else to do it up and run it as before, thus forming an endless chain of gambling. You and those in your employ must quit this kind of business. It is to be continued, led captive by the open saloon or the example of a father
who was void of wisdom and discretion. Help to save the boys and saloon keepers. Christ died for such. Hell and heaven are
the goals."

For the return of Taylor and Finley a Republican Governor of Indiana refused to honor a request from a Democratic Kentucky Governor. Now that Kentucky has a Republican and Indian Democrat in office the question arises: Will Gov. Wilson, of Kentucky, ask for their return or will he pardon them?

He has stated in his pardon of Powers and Howard that he did not believe a conspiracy existed to murder Mr. Goehel.

Fred Emerson Brooks, the poet, orator and humorist, will be in our city next week in the second entertainment of the series given by Profs. Cord and Hopper. If life has been monotonous, if you desire merriment and mental elevation, if you are disposed to say this is a dull town, hear Brooks.

The Judge then made the four men stand before him, and, addressing them one by one by name, extracted a promise from them that they would quit for good. The Judge then assessed the fines of $250 each.

Reference is made to "a custom that is not unusual of agreeing with the Commonwealth Attorney, etc." The object of such an agreement is usually not the enforcement of law, the suppression of the offense. Whether or not the attorney thinks he is doing his duty, the public will be apt to conclude that he has "an eye to business," while with the other eye he winks at the lawlessness, and in that measure loses the confidence of men who regard him as the executor of law.

If the act referred to is illegal it should be broken up, suppressed, and not tolerated by the recurring imposition of a fine which is nothing more or less than an incentive to continue in business in partnership with the civil officer

BRYAN SAYS

The Democracy Will Yet come Into Its Own.

Declaring the Democratic party cannot die and has accomplished more out of office the last twelve years than the Republican party has in office, W. J. Bryan bids his supporters not despair. In the Commoner he speaks of the election contests and discusses the future.
He says:

"The election of 1908 is over and the returns disclose a signal victory for our opponents, but the principles for which our party stands, the policies for which our party contends, these are not dead.

"Does any one believe the American people will permanently permit society as to campaign contribution? Does any one believe the American people will permanently permit the will of the voters to be thwarted as it is now by the actions of Senators through Legislations? Does any one believe the trusts will be permitted permanently to exploit the masses? Does any one believe the consumers will permanently permit the tariff to be written by the beneficiaries of the tariff? Does any one believe the public will permanently tolerate an estrangement between labor and capital? Does any one believe 15,000,000 of depositors will ever permit their savings to be participated in by the speculators?"

"Saloons in towns with electric lights and police protection are bad enough and too bad, but what protection from the drunken rabble has a country population like Jeffersonville? The voters of that precinct can answer in a lawful, honorable way and will answer on December 19. Every man should know where he stands. Remember the Phelps-Woodard tragedy in Menifee and the discharge of pistols near and through houses of worship, and that drunkards come from moderate drinkers and that moderate drinkers were once innocent and pure children led captive by the open saloon or the example of a father
who was void of wisdom and discretion. Help to save the boys
and saloon keepers. Christ died
for such. Hell and heaven are
the goals."

"During the last twelve years the Democratic party has accomplished more out of office than the Republicans have in office, and this is sufficient reward for those who fight for the righteous cause. It would have been pleasant to have been able to reward worthy Democrats with official positions. They are looking for good government, and they labor selflessly for the promotion of good government.

"As for myself, let me not worry about my future. The holding of office is a mere incident of life of those who are devoted to reform.
The reform is the essential thing.
If one can advance reforms by holding office, then holding of office is justifiable; if one can best advance reforms as a private citizen, then holding office is undesirable."

"The world owes me nothing.
I have been abundantly compensated for what I have been able to do.
My life will not be long enough to repay the people for their support and for the confidence they have expressed."

"With an abiding faith in the triumph of truth and unfaltering confidence in the righteousness of our cause, I speak this word of encouragement to those who call themselves friends. I shall keep step with them and march on. If we are right, as I believe we are, it will vindicate us; if we contribute, as I believe we are contributing,
to a cause that is founded on justice our efforts will weigh in final violence."

McClure's Drug Store Burned.

On Monday night, November 9,
the drug store and office of Dr.
W. B. McClure, at Sherrilene, Ky., were burned. Mulholland and his blood hounds from Lexington were at once summoned. The dogs raced to the home of Harry Morgan, through the residence and located him in the Stix barn. He was arrested and taken to the office of Dr. H. H. Morgan, his brother. Great excitement arose.
Thos. G. Daugherty was severely cut by Harry Morgan. Morgan was taken to jail at Flemingsburg.
It is said that a duplicate wren-ding of one recently received by McClure was found in Morgan's

The Lesson from Missouri.

It is a mistake to assert that Gov. Hughes was the only man elected in a local election on a straight out moral issue.

The election of Attorney General Herbert S. Hadley as Governor of Missouri was in some ways a more remarkable triumph than that of Gov. Hughes.

Mr. Hadley is the Republican Attorney General of a normally Democratic State. He was chosen to this position on the Roosevelt tidal wave four years ago. Although the Governor of the State, Mr. Folk, was a Democrat, Mr. Hadley declined to play partisanship politics and backed Mr. Folk in every reform measure that official undertook.

Mr. Hadley was particularly active in aiding Mr. Folk in the enforcement of the State law requiring the saloons to keep closed on Sunday in St. Louis, Kansas City and elsewhere and in Gov. Folk's successful crusade against the racetrack gamblers. When nominated for Governor Mr. Hadley announced that he would follow closely in the steps of Gov. Folk and would continue his policies.

The Democratic party on the other hand repudiated the policies of Mr. Folk, and at a fraudulent primary nominated Congressman Cowherd, a pronounced reactionary, for Governor.

The fight for Mr. Hadley was considered almost hopeless as rural Missouri has always been strong for Bryan, and it was feared that St. Louis would pile up a large majority against the Republican nominee because of his attitude toward the Sunday law.

The fear was not realized. Mr. Hadley broke even with Mr. Gardner in rural Missouri. He carried St. Louis by 12,000, and he is elected Governor by a majority of about 17,000 votes. In this race not only did the voters see the issue clearly and elect Mr. Hadley, but because of Mr. Hadley's strength the electoral vote of the State goes to Taft.

The Kansas City Star says:

Hadley's victory looks no detail of a popular triumph. The combination of the Special Interests against him was complete. Brewery domination, machine rule, saloon lawbreaking, racetrack gambling, these threats to a good government and public decency were all depending on the defeat of Hadley and all their forces were in desperate activity against him.

Mr. Sterling's greatest bargain store is ready to meet your every want.

The Louisville Store.Tobacco Sales at Lexington.

The season's second tobacco sales took place Friday; the highest price of the year was received for a small amount.

A small quantity from the Van Brasher farm, in this country about miles from Lexington sold at rate of $29 per hundred, and it is said this is the highest price ever received for burley tobacco on the local breaks. This was purchased by the Blue Grass Tobacco Company of this city and will be used in the manufacture of the Blue Ribbon twist.

A lot of 500 pounds from Madison county, was sold to the American Tobacco Company at $25.50. Below are given the total sales for the three warehouses:

25,000 pounds, highest $29; lowest $14.

42,000 pounds; highest $25.50 lowest $10.50.

10,000 pounds, average $18; total 77,000 pounds.

Colds and Croup in Children.

"My little girl is subject to croup," says Mrs. Wm. H. Scott, No. 41 Fifth St., Whistle, W. Va. "Last winter she had a severe spell and a terrible croup, but I cured her with Chamomile's Cough Remedy without the aid of a doctor, and my little boy has been prevented many times from having the croup by the timely use of this syrup. Lynch Negro Brute Who Assaulted Girl.

Henry Leidy, a negro charged with criminal assault upon Eliza May Hauser, a 15-year-old white girl, at Biloxi, Miss., was quietly taken from his cell in the jail by an armed mob of several hundred white men, and hanged to trees about a half mile from town.

The young girl was attacked on a road near Back Bay. After beating her over the head he dragged her into a body of water and accomplished his purpose. The wounds on the girl's head bled freely and the negro left her lying dead in a pool of blood. When she recovered consciousness she crawled to within calling distance of a neighbor's house and gave the alarm.

Bloodhounds were sent for, but Leidy was captured without their use. He was taken, in his blood-stained clothes before the girl, who positively identified him. An effort was then made to lynch the negro, but officers managed to get him to the jail in Biloxi.

While the Chief of Police was at dinner the mob formed, slipped through the rear of the jail and overpowered the one policeman who was on duty. Without firing a single shot they secured their prisoner and carried him to a point overlooking Back Bay, where he was lynched.

Hick Tally in Trouble Again.

A special from Owingsville of Nov. 11, says:

Hick Tally, of near Sharpesburg, was placed in jail here today charged with attempting to strike Mrs. Robert Gilbert with a scoop-shovel and threatening to burn her home. The trouble started over Mrs. Gilbert testifying against Tally's wife, who was tried here a short time ago and sentenced to U. S. days in jail.

Tally served one year in State Prison several years ago for burning a barn of Waller Sharp, near Sharpesburg. Tally was fined $25 and costs for breach of the peace. Other charges continued.

The Department of Agriculture has issued a preliminary estimate of the production of the principal crops of the United States showing that corn, wheat, oats, and eight other crops, representing approximately 70 per cent. of the value of all farm crops this year, aggregate about 3 per cent. greater than a year ago and 24 per cent. greater than the average for the last five years.

POOR WIDOW LOSES BOY AND TOBACCO CROP.

Barn Destroyed While Friends Were Watching Corpse of Dead Son Near Paducah.

Friends who were sitting up with the body of Azzy Hines, near Paducah, Ky., Wednesday night discovered a large tobacco barn was on fire. The family was aroused, but all efforts to check the blaze were unavailing. In the barn was stored the tobacco crop of James Price and Mrs. Minnie Hines, mother of the dead boy. The loss will amount to $1,500, with no insurance.

Azzy Hines, 19 years old, died Monday. The loss of her son, her only support, and her tobacco crop is financially a severe blow to the boy's mother. She resided on the farm of Mr. Price and had an interest in the tobacco crop. Kind-hearted neighbors made up a purse to pay for the funeral and burial of the boy. It is thought that the fire originated from lightning.

A. Everett, president of the original body.

The objects are:

To educate farmers and establish a national society for co-operation among farmers.

To obtain profitable prices for all products of the farm, orchard and garden.

To encourage the building and maintaining of elevators, cold storage houses and warehouses, also granaries so that farm produce may be held for profitable prices.

To report crops and crop conditions; to report markets and direct the marketing of crops so that farmers may operate intelligently in planting and marketing.

CROP OF CORN.

Report of the Department of Agriculture is Issued.

An average yield of 26.2 bushels of corn per acre and an indicated total production of 2,632,687,000 bushels of corn are preliminary estimates announced in the report of the Department of Agriculture issued at Washington, summarizing corn and five other crops. The yield of corn per acre in 1907 was 25.9 as finally estimated, and averaged 25.6 for ten years, while the production is compared with 2,592,320,000 bushels finally estimated in 1907. Quality of corn is 86.9 per cent., compared with 82.8 in 1907 and 84.3 ten-year average.

About 2.7 per cent., or 71,124,000 bushels, is estimated to have been in farmers' hands on November 1, against 4.5 per cent., or 130,995,000 bushels a year ago, and a ten-year average of 4.5 per cent.

France and Germany Agree to Arbitration.

The question that has arisen between France and Germany over what has come to be known as the "Casa Blanca incident," arising out of the arrest by the French authorities of Germans deserters from the French foreign legion, will be referred to a court of arbitration. M. Jules Cambon, the French Ambassador at Berlin, and Baron Von Wachter, the German Secretary for Foreign Affairs, signed an agreement looking to the settlement of matters in dispute.

The official text of the agreement sets forth that after an exchange of expressions of regret that the incident occurred, the entire question of law and facts shall be submitted to arbitration. No mention is made of The Hague tribunal, the selection of the court being left open for adjustment later.

The agreement also provides that the country whose agents are adjudged at fault shall make an apology to the other.

An experiment in long-distance wireless telegraphy, under official auspices, will be made by the Navy Department. Satisfactory proposals are received in response to an advertisement, soon to be issued by the Bureau of Equipment. This will invite bids for the construction of a long-distance, high-power station, to be located in or near Washington, capable of transmitting messages 3,000 miles to ships at sea.

120 Eggs Per Annum Hen.

Today the average hen is laying one hundred and twenty eggs. The ability to produce such a heavy egg yield is a great benefit.

But how is such a feat accomplished? It is simply in the management of the layers, as well as in the breeding.

No matter how well bred a hen may be, if she does not receive intelligent management she will never lay a satisfactory number of eggs. Proper feed and housing goes far toward a big egg yield.

It has required considerable time and careful mating. It is not an impossibility, as some may suppose, to build up an egg-laying strain with a breed of one hundred and fifty birds behind them. Hens that have been mated with some science, housed through the winter with the proper care, fed with some intelligence on good wholesome grain, can easily induce to produce an egg yield of one hundred and fifty.

Plenty being dependent for their growth upon the action of rays of sunlight, they fall upon their leaves, have a wide distribution between day and night functions.

They eat and drink in the night, and grow during the hours of darkness.

These low forms of animal life—the simplest denizens of ocean and land—do not rest at regular intervals.

They prowl around incessantly, seeking prey by the sense of touch alone.

When they rest, it is at irregular periods.

In other words, they have no definite periods of rest.

But as soon as eggs are developed, and in proportion to this development, animals begin to divide their time into two main portions—walking and a sleeping time. While there is light they perform all motive functions.

When darkness comes they retire to rest or lay to rest.

PERIOD OF REST PROCLAIMED.

Absence of Light Regulates the Hours of Slumber.

If it were always daytime, we should never sleep. So says a scientist, according to Answers. There is no particular reason why we, or any other animals, should rest, on an average, eight or nine hours a day.

The period of rest has been determined by the fact that eight hours is the average time when there is a lack of sufficient light to enable us to move about with comfort.

This most fundamental distinction between night and day is wholly responsible for the sense of sight, it only affects those types of life which have developed eyes.

Plants being dependent for their growth upon the action of rays of sunlight, they fall upon their leaves, have a wide distribution between day and night functions.

ARE MASTERS OF EVASIVENESS

Boudin's Answer Typical of the East.

In the far east, when men converge together, an evasion is equal to an answer. Riding down to Egypt over his old caravan route from Jerusalem to Cairo, Norman Duncan and a party pitched their tents outside a Boudin's hotel, and by means of offering against the idea of hospitality to such people as he, so religiously maintained.

M. Duncan, writing in Harper's Magazine, says that he was obliged to turn aside their reproaches—and avoid the nominative quarters which were still clinging to him—by turning to his guide, "The man must die."

"Ask him if the world is round or flat?"

The reply was a pure philosopher's jewel of the east. "If the world is flat," came the response, "after I have traveled around it, where am I?"

"And where is God?"

"I am God," was the reply.

And the man softly applauded, in their pleasure forgetting their injury, for getting everything except the joyous native craft of words.

The Inquisitive Man.

Wet paint as a test of human curiosity. Wet paint in the sun.

The answer at the One Hundred and Tenth street subway station was out of order the other morning.

The first person to discover the fact was a small boy with a yearning for fun. He quickly dropped a penny into the slot, and the man replied without delay.

Repeated thumpings and shakings failed to induce it to appear, and the boy, looking disconsolate, was finally persuaded by his mother to go downtown without it.

A doctor, who had been making his futile attempt to coax out a sum, but they were in no wise deterred from following his example.

Evidently each thought his predecessor had not manipulated the machine properly, so that he could do better before they started.

The boy, before they started, had a train along five men who apparently had never known what chewing gum tasted like had sacrificed penes on the altar of their curiosity.

An Ancient "Twopenny Tube."

A great tunnel which has lately been found at Gezer, in the land of the Philistines, in Palestine, was recently at the weekly meeting of the Palestine Exploration Fund. Prof. Macalister, whose son has been making the excavations, said that the tunnel, which was made in 2000 B. C., was high in the "twopenny tube," or half an inch, and half an arch. It descends by 80 steps, the lowest of which is 130 feet below ground. In it is a well. The tunnel is the greatest engineering work that has been found in Palestine, and has astonished every one who has seen it. St. James' Gazette.

Suffered From Stomach Trouble and General Debility. Mrs. Minor Was Weak, Sick, Discouraged.

RESTORED TO HEALTH BY VINOL.

"Last January I was all run down in health and so weak that I was unable to attend to my household duties. I was very much disengaged with my condition, as I was receiving no benefit from the medicine I had taken. Finally on the advice of my druggist I decided to try the cod liver and iron preparation, Vinol. In a short time I felt better, and after taking five bottles my health was fully restored. I have suffered from stomach trouble for years, but since taking Vinol this trouble has entirely disappeared, and I now eat better, sleep better and am better than I have been for a long time. Vinol certainly worked wonders in my case, and I heartily recommend it to any one in need of such a medicine."—Mrs. Harvey L. Minor, Canal Dover, Ohio.

22,000,000 Pounds of Burley Raised.

Whether the price offered for 1908 tobacco will affect the action of the Executive Committee in fixing the price for the 1907 pooled crop is a question, but it is thought the schedule will be a shade higher than the price of the 1906 pooled crop, probably about two cents.

It is said that statistics show that about 22,000,000 pounds of Burley has been raised this year. It is now asserted that the 1907 pooled crop will be placed on sale regardless of the unsold portion of the 1906 crop.

Mrs. Hazard Trimble, living at 4 Janison St., Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "When I began using Dom's Kidney Pills I was a very sick woman and was unable to stand upon my feet or do any house work. I had pains in my left side and the action of the kidney secretions was not regular and at times they were so scanty that there was almost complete suppression. I began to see signs of dropsy in my limbs and hands and my condition was becoming worse when I began using Dom's Kidney Pills, procured at F. C. Duerson's drug store. I have been greatly benefited and feel like a different woman. These results have proven to me their effectiveness as a kidney remedy, and I am pleased to give them my highest endorsement."
